by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION ____.

(a) The provisions of this act shall not apply to a trade secret or proprietary information held or used by an association or nonprofit corporation to which this act applies.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Trade secret" means the whole or any portion or phrase of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula or improvement which is secret and of value. The trier of fact may infer a trade secret to be secret when the owner thereof takes measures to prevent it from becoming available to persons other than those selected by the owner to have access thereto for limited purposes;

(2) "Proprietary information" means rating information, plans, or proposals; actuarial information; specifications for specific services provided; and any other commercial or financial information used either directly or indirectly in making or deliberating toward a decision by employees, agents or the board of directors of such association or corporation and which if known to a person or entity outside the association or corporation would give such person or entity an advantage or an opportunity to gain an advantage over the association or
